

House Bill 64

By: Representatives Ralston of the 7th and Powell of the 29th

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

To amend Article 2 of Chapter 8 of Title 42 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to the state-wide probation system, so as to change the sentence lengths for persons sentenced to probation detention and diversion centers; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

Article 2 of Chapter 8 of Title 42 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to the state-wide probation system, is amended by striking subsection (a) of Code Section 42-8-35.4, relating to confinement in a probation diversion center, and inserting in lieu thereof a new subsection (a) to read as follows:

"(a) In addition to any other terms and conditions of probation provided for in this article, the trial judge may require that a defendant convicted of a felony and sentenced to a period of not less than one year on probation or a defendant who has been previously sentenced to probation for a forcible misdemeanor as defined in paragraph (7) of Code Section 16-1-3 or a misdemeanor of a high and aggravated nature and has violated probation or other probation alternatives and is subsequently sentenced to a period of not less than one year on probation shall complete satisfactorily, as a condition of that probation, a program of confinement in a probation detention center. Probationers so sentenced will be required to serve a period of confinement ~~as specified in the court order, which confinement period shall be computed from the date of initial confinement in the probation detention center of~~ 120 days which shall be computed from the time of initial confinement in the probation detention center; provided, however, that the department may release the defendant upon service of a minimum of 60 days in recognition of the defendant's program progression; and provided, further, that the defendant's unsatisfactory behavior shall be grounds for the revocation of the defendant's probated sentence as would any other violation of a condition or term of probation."

SECTION 2.

Said article is further amended by striking subsection (a) of Code Section 42-8-35.5, relating to confinement in a probation diversion center, and inserting in lieu thereof a new subsection (a) to read as follows:

"(a) In addition to any other terms and conditions of probation provided in this article, the trial judge may require that probationers sentenced to a period of not less than one year on probation shall satisfactorily complete, as a condition of that probation, a program in a probation diversion center. Probationers so sentenced will be required to serve a period of confinement ~~as specified in the court order, which confinement period shall be computed from the date of initial confinement in the diversion center~~ of 180 days which shall be computed from the time of initial confinement in the probation diversion center; provided, however, that the department may release the defendant upon service of a minimum of 120 days in recognition of the defendant's program progression; and provided, further, that the defendant's unsatisfactory behavior shall be grounds for the revocation of the defendant's probated sentence as would any other violation of a condition or term of probation."

SECTION 3.

All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
